

Kawania Howerton Wooten, CMP

Kawania Wooten, CMP, brings a unique mix of experience and skills to her firm, Howerton+Wooten Events. Kawania's 25 years of planning professional conferences and high-end events for the Washington DC elite blend naturally with her past experience in the culinary industry.

Known to her friends and family as Kay, she uses artistic skills, her keen attention to the smallest details and her strong commitment to customer service as the hallmark of her business. As the founder of the company, Kawania strives for professionalism, creativity and impeccable organization within every function planned by Howerton+Wooten Events.

She draws on her experience and strong public speaking skills as she teaches "Fundamentals of Convention and Event Management" at Prince Georges Community College. Kawania has won awards for innovation in the meeting planning industry, and her company has won numerous awards for their excellent client care.

Kawania's professional affiliations include Professional Convention Management Association (PCMA), American Society of Association Executives (ASAE), and the International Special Events Society (ISES).

She holds a Bachelors degree in Mass Media Arts from Hampton University in Virginia, and she participated in the Harvard Business School's Executive Management Program in June of 2005 under the auspices of the Cable & Telecommunications Association for Marketing.

Kawania has been married since 1996 to the love of her life, Christopher. Together, they are raising and loving on their son in Bowie, Maryland.
